Solution includes Attunity Replicate and Compose for Hive to automate the data lake pipeline and facilitate customer analytics

BURLINGTON, Massachusetts, October 17, 2018 /PRNewswire/ --

Attunity Ltd. (NASDAQ CM: ATTU), a leading provider of data integration and big data management software solutions, announced today that a global bank (the "Bank") has signed a term agreement in excess of $500,000 in annual fees for Attunity Replicate and Attunity Compose for Hive. The integrated Attunity platform was selected to enable a real-time data lake supporting modern analytics and a 360-degree view of the Bank's customers.

With assets of nearly $1 trillion, the Bank selected Attunity for its unique ability to automate the data lake pipeline sourced from multiple heterogeneous systems, including Oracle and Sybase. Due to the Customer's need to scale business rapidly and with greater agility, they appreciated the Attunity solution's ease of use and low-impact change data capture (CDC) technology. In addition, using Attunity Compose for Hive, the Bank can now accelerate the process of making data analytics-ready for consumption in its Hortonworks data lake. These innovations are designed to fuel the Bank's strategic initiative to enable a single view of its customers.

"Customer analytics require real-time data from diverse data sources and we are pleased that the Bank selected Attunity over other alternatives," stated Mark Logan, President at Attunity. "Our broad support for heterogeneous enterprise systems, and our modern and automated approach to data integration provide the scale and ease of use required by the Bank. We look forward to continuing to help companies provide deeper insights and improved customer satisfaction."
